Code of Conduct

At The PA, we do not tolerate discrimination, bullying, sexual harassment or other forms of harassment. We expect everyone working with us to treat others with dignity and respect, in person and online.

Through our policies and practices, we provide clear ways to raise concerns. We also have a Whistleblowing Policy with a confidential hotline and email address so that issues or concerns can be raised without any fear of reprisal.